Cover and above: The Savannah district managed and executed the renovation of the Maneuver Center of Excellence (MCOE) Headquarters at Fort Benning, Ga. The U.S. Army Armor School, formerly headquartered at Fort Knox, Ky., moved to a co-located headquarters with the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Ga., creating the Maneuver Center of Excellence. The renovation was the largest in the Army at $168 million. The statues of "Iron Mike" and "Ole Bill," erected in the front of the headquarters building, represent the spirit of the Combined Arms Team and the MCOE and commemorate Calvary and Armor Troopers of the past, present, and the future. Read more about the project on page 7. Cover illustration based on photo by Kristine Latimer, AECOM.
