

SAVANNAH DISTRICT
U.S. ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS

Peter A. Oddi, P.E., PMP
Deputy District Engineer for Programs and Project Management

Peter A. Oddi serves as the Deputy District Engineer for Programs and Project Management, which is the highest ranking civilian position within the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Savannah District. He has served in this role since May of 2005.

Oddi also serves a dual role as the Chief of the Programs and Project Management Division (PPM). The PPM Division is responsible for executing and managing an annual program that exceeds $2 billion, and includes a staff of about 60.

The Savannah District supports 11 Army and Air Force installations in Georgia and North Carolina, and water resource activities in Georgia and portions of South Carolina. The Savannah District performs work nationwide and worldwide in support of military design and construction; master planning; hazardous, toxic and radioactive waste clean-up at Formerly Used Defense sites; real estate activities for the Department of Defense; emergency management operations for state and federal agencies and in support of Overseas Contingency Operations.

Oddi began his career with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in 1983 as a structural engineer with the Vicksburg District, in Vicksburg, Miss. In 1987 he moved to the Savannah District and served in a variety of project management positions, including branch chief, assistant branch chief, senior project manager and project manager. Before assuming his current position, Oddi served four years as the Chief of the Military Programs and Project Management Branch for the Savannah District.

Oddi is a registered Professional Engineer as well as a certified Project Management Professional. His professional awards and recognition include the U.S. Army Medical Command's Charles E. Christ Award; South Atlantic Division's Military Project Management Excellence Award; the Air Force's AFRCE-ER Design Manager of the Year Award; two Commander's Awards for Civilian Service; a Superior Civilian Service Award; a Meritorious Civilian Service Awards and a Bronze de Fleury Medal.

Oddi graduated from Auburn University in 1981 with a Bachelor of Civil Engineering degree and received a Master of Civil Engineering degree from Mississippi State University in 1987. He is a member of the American Society of Military Engineers and the Project Management Institute.
