

CREDITS:

Sources for information and photos obtained from Georgia's Endangered Animals and Plants Manual by Cooperative Extension Service/The University of Georgia College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences Athens and Georgia DNR.

Dr. Kim Coder, The University of Georgia, Extension Forest Resources and Aquaculture and Fisheries

Tom Patrick, Georgia Department of Natural Resources, Wildlife Resources Division, Georgia Natural Heritage Program

Dr. Steve Hill, Dr. John Fairey and John Tobe (drawing); Clemson University, Department of Biological Sciences, Clemson, South Carolina

Georgia Department of Natural Resources- photo of wood storks, McDuffie County site

Kathy Boyle, S.C. Department of Wildlife and Marine Resources Commission.

Lori Duncan and Ron Larson, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Charleston, South Carolina office and Brunswick, Georgia office

Adam R. Dean, J. S. Thurmond High School- computer visual formatting for manual.

Byron J. Freeman, Institute of Ecology, UGA -Photo, robust redhorse.

Eugene P. Keferl, Dept. of Natural Sciences and Mathematics, Coastal Georgia Community College, Brunswick, GA- photos of heelsplitter mussel

Richard H. Legere, Savannah District Corps of Engineers, CESMS-OP-FC –photo, bog turtle.

Julia MacKintosh of Woodlanders Nursery, Aiken, South Carolina.

Hugh Wilson, Herbarium, Texas A & M- photos of cucumber tree

Lawrence W. Zettler, Biology Department, Illinois College- photos and drawings of monkey-face orchid.

General Guidance on Environmental Compliance for Lake Projects, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Savannah District.

U. S Army Corps of Engineers: Lori Brewster, Susan Boyd, Shirley Willard, Chris Arthur, Janis Folsom, Sherri Hedgpath, Cristie Kimsey, Michael Masters, Mary Moffat, Kathy Morgan, Ken Boyd, and Jeff Brooks.

Return to contents