QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
HOMEOWNERS ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (HAP)
(September 2003)

- Q. Is a service member or federal employee not attached to the installation eligible for HAP benefits?
- A. Any service member or federal employee assigned to or employed at or near the installation at the time of the public announcement of the closure action is eligible, if otherwise qualified. Non-appropriated Fund Instrumentality (NAFI) employees at or in connection with the base are also eligible.
- Q. For VA loans, will the Government retire or assume my mortgage so eligibility can be restored?
- A. The Government will either liquidate or assume VA mortgages on residential properties. The applicant must handle the restoring of his VA eligibility.
- Q. At what point should an applicant market his home?
- A. As soon as he knows he will be relocating. Two eligibility requirements for the program are that the applicant must have made a bonafide effort to sell his home and relocated outside a reasonable commuting distance. In some instances, the applicant may be eligible without relocating providing they involuntarily lost their job due to the base closure or realignment and demonstrate a financial hardship.
- Q. A Real estate agent expects a commission. Will the Government pay commissions when they acquire the house?
- A. No. Applicants should assure that the listing agreement for their property contains the statement below. If the listing agreement does not contain the statement and any commission is due; it is the responsibility of the applicant.
- "In the event the herein listed property is sold to the United States of America, or an agency thereof, the listing broker will not be entitled to any commission or other consideration as a result of such sale."
- Q. Will local appraisers have input to appraised values?
- A. The home appraisals are prepared by independent contract appraisers. Local appraisers may have input if they are awarded competitive appraisal contracts to do the HAP work for the Corps of Engineers. Contract appraisals will be reviewed by Corps of Engineers appraisers.
- Q. Will my HAP benefits be taxable?
- A. Yes. State taxes are not withheld. It is your responsibility to pay any taxes owed to the State.

- Q. If I refinance my house after the base closure announcement date, will I still be eligible?
A. Yes, but only for the amount of your outstanding mortgage balance on the day you refinanced your loan. The expenses of closing costs are not included and must be paid at your own expense.
- Q. Who pays the closing costs when the Government purchases a home under the HAP?
A. The Government will, at its own expense, obtain title services to close the transaction.
- Q. An applicant retires after the closure announcement and moves away. Does he qualify for HAP benefits?
A. Yes, provided he is eligible under the other requirements of the Act.
- Q. How long is it from the time an applicant qualifies until benefits are received?
A. Approximately four or five months, provided funds are appropriated by Congress and the applicant has provided all required documentation with his application, and assuming he has a marketable title. This also can vary with the number of applicants requesting benefits.
- Q. What constitutes a reasonable effort for the sale of my home?
A. A visible, conscientious effort on behalf of the applicant such as listing property with a real estate agent, advertising the property in the newspaper, etc.
- Q. If an applicant is not eligible under the HAP, is there another Federal agency program under which the applicant can get help?
A. Civilian employees may be eligible for relocation services under the Department of Defense National Relocation Program (DNRP) formally called DARSE. You should contact your personnel office for more information.
- Q. Will individuals who are assigned to the installation since the announced action be eligible for HAP benefits if they purchase their home after the realignment/closure announcement?
A. No. An applicant must be the owner/occupant of a one or two family dwelling at the time of the public announcement.
- Q. If a person owns a farm (say 60 acres) and maintains a home on the farm, how much qualifies under the HAP?
A. Only the dwelling and that portion of the land that would reasonably constitute a residential property within the area.
- Q. If a civilian is RIF'd with no job offer; can he qualify for HAP benefits?
A. Yes.

- Q. Do civilians working overseas at the time of the announced action who have return rights back to the installation qualify for HAP benefits?
- A. Yes.
- Q. What rights does an applicant have if he/she is not satisfied with any adverse decision made by HAP?
- A. An applicant has the right to appeal any decision denying benefits or contesting the amount of benefits allowed. No particular format is required. Simply submit a written statement of your objections to our office. The appeal will be reviewed at the District level. If favorable action cannot be taken at any of these levels, your appeal will be forwarded to higher headquarters that will make the final decision.
- Q. I am a uniformed member of the military. Am I eligible for Relocation Benefits?
- A. No. Only civilian employees are eligible for the Department of the Defense National Relocation Program (DNRP).
- Q. Can I use both HAP and the Relocation Services Program?
- A. If you are eligible for both programs, you may use both. If you sell your home to the relocation services contractor, you may apply to the HAP to reimburse part of your losses under the Private Sale Benefits option.
- Q. Will I have to bring any money to closing?
- A. If you occupy your house until or nearly until the closing date and have not made a payment for the month, you will be responsible for interest due from the previous month plus year-to-date real estate taxes.
- Q: What is the Private Sale Augmentation Benefit?
- A: The Private Sale Augmentation Benefit was recently authorized and allows eligible applicants to sell their properties for less than the mortgage payoff provided the sale proceeds and the HAP benefit is sufficient to pay the mortgage and all closing costs in full. HAP may pay the difference at closing between the sale price and the loan balance (payoff) to the mortgage company and other associated costs may be included. Any benefit payments are considered income and taxable as income. Please contact a HAP Realty Specialist to discuss your particular situation prior to negotiating and signing a sales contract to determine if you meet the criteria for an Augmented Sale.

APPLICATION FOR HOMEOWNERS ASSISTANCE

IF: You are or were a servicemember, a Federal employee, a member of the Coast Guard, or a U.S. citizen employee of a nonappropriated fund instrumentality serving at or near a military installation which has been ordered to be closed in whole or in part, or has been closed to reduce the scope of operations;

AND: You own or owned your home near that installation;

AND: You will be or have been obliged to move away to obtain new work, are reassigned to another area, or are involuntarily unemployed;

You may be entitled to benefits under the Department of Defense Homeowners Assistance Program. For details on how you may qualify, see below.

THE LAW

Public Law 89-754, Section 1013, as amended, authorizes the Secretary of Defense to provide financial help to eligible homeowners serving or employed at or near military installations which were ordered closed or partially closed, realigned or were ordered to reduce the scope of operations. The Department of the Army acts as executive agent for DoD in administering the program for all military departments. Before the benefits can be paid, certain conditions must be met.

CONDITIONS

The Base Closure or Reduction Action.

There must be a decline in the market value of your home which can reasonably be shown to have been caused by the closure.

The Homeowner.

There are several circumstances which may qualify you to benefit from the Homeowners Assistance Program. As a servicemember, Federal employee (other than a temporary employee serving under a time limitation), member of the Coast Guard, or U.S. citizen employee of a nonappropriated fund instrumentality, you may qualify if your service assignment or your job is ended as a result of the closure or reduction.

Benefits may also be available to eligible personnel on permanent change of station moves during the period of continued market impact. Payment may not duplicate any payment received under any other law. Benefits under the program are not available to personnel of contractors.

Service Requirements.

You must have served at or have been employed at or near the installation when the closure or reduction was announced; OR

You must have transferred from the installation (or had your employment ended as a result of reduction-in-force) within the six months prior to the announcement; OR

Be serving overseas as a Federal employee, with existing reemployment rights at the time of the announcement.

You must have transferred from the installation on an oversea tour within three years prior to the announcement.

At the time of the announcement, transfer or job termination, you must have been the owner-occupant of the dwelling (or have left it after being ordered into on-post housing during the six months before the announcement).

The Dwelling.

Your residence must be a one- or two-family dwelling which you both owned and occupied at the time of the announcement, transfer or termination of employment. In general, a trailer or mobile home will not qualify unless demounted and permanently affixed to land which is owned or held under a long (27.5 years) lease.

The Local Real Estate Market.

The law permits benefits if your property has decreased in value because of the announced closure or reduction so that it cannot be sold on "reasonable terms." Local market conditions and causal relationships between a base closure or reduction action and reduced home market values will be determined by the Government.

Finally, to qualify, you MUST:

Relocate beyond a normal commuting distance from the dwelling for which assistance is sought; OR

Be unemployed involuntarily and able to demonstrate such financial hardship that you are unable to meet your mortgage payments and related expenses.

BENEFITS

There are three ways you can be assisted. The decision of which method you use is up to you.

NOTE: You cannot receive benefits and continue to own your home.

You may choose:

(1) To take a cash payment to cover part of your losses resulting from a private sale of the dwelling; or

(2) To sell your house to the Government; or

(3) To be paid losses incurred as a result of the foreclosure of a mortgage on the dwelling.

Cash Payment.

If you have sold your dwelling, the amount to be paid to you cannot be more than the difference between (a) 95 percent of the fair market value of the property before the announcement; and (b) the market value at the time of the sale.

Example: A house had a market value of $100,000 before the announcement. Ninety-five percent of that is $95,000. If you sold the house for $93,000 and that sum is accepted as the market value as of the time of sale, you will be paid $2,000 (the difference between the value at the time of sale and 95 percent of the value before the announcement).

If there is a Federally insured or guaranteed mortgage on the property, a cash payment will not be made unless (a) the mortgage debt is paid off before or at the time the Homeowners Assistance Program payment is made; or (b) the mortgage is assumed by a purchaser satisfactory to the Federal agency insuring the mortgage.

Selling to the Government.

If you still own your dwelling and choose to sell it to the Government after having made a reasonable effort to sell the property, the amount to be paid to you cannot be more than 75 percent of the market value of the property before the announcement less the amount of outstanding mortgage balances, which the Government will pay or assume. If the outstanding mortgage balances are greater than 75 percent of the prior market value, the Government will take over your property and pay off or assume your mortgage liabilities but will not give you any cash payment.

Foreclosure.

If the lenders have foreclosed on the property, you may be reimbursed for amounts you paid out as a result of the foreclosure. This payment may include direct costs of foreclosure and expenses and liabilities enforceable under the terms of the loan agreement for the house. If these debts have not yet been paid, the Government may pay them on your behalf. This remedy is seldom used because of the availability of other remedies.

HOW TO APPLY

Attached to this instruction sheet is an Application for Homeowners Assistance. If you believe that you qualify for such assistance, read the application over carefully and answer completely each part which applies to you.

Please type or print, limiting each entry to the space provided. If there is not enough space for your answer, use the "Remarks" section on Page 4 of the form. Repeat the item number and give the additional information. If a date is required, enter year, month, and day (for example: June 1, 1995 would be 950601).

Your application must be reviewed by a department personnel office, military or civilian, for verification of your service or employment records and mailed to the appropriate office of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers which administers the program on behalf of the Secretary of Defense.

The Corps of Engineers Office will notify you when your application is received.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

PRIVACY ACT INFORMATION

FOR HOMEOWNERS ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (HAP) APPLICANTS

The Homeowners Assistance Program was authorized by Section 1013 of the Demonstration Cities and Metropolitan Development Act of 1966, Public Law 89-754 (80 Stat. 1255,1290), as amended. The Corps of Engineers administers the Homeowners Assistance Program for the Department of Defense. Individuals seeking benefits under the Act must file an application form (DD Form 1607) and, in addition, may be requested to furnish supplemental information to support their applications. The information requested will be used to identify the number of homeowners affected by the announced closure/realignment, and to determine the impact on the market, eligibility, and entitlement to specific program benefits. The application and supporting information, including appeal cases, will be retained for ten years after completion. Information disclosed by applicants will be treated on a confidential basis and will not be disclosed except to personnel in the Department of Defense who have a need for the information. Sale of the property to the government and the amount thereof is also reported to Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Deeds of conveyance to the Government, which may contain data on mortgages assumed, and other documents regarding to sufficiency of title, may be furnished to the Department of Justice for review. Documents relating to sufficiency of title, information from the application package and the social security number on the application may be provided to Government contractors for use in performing title searches and closing services. Information contained in the application form and supporting documents are furnished voluntarily; however, if all required information is not furnished, eligibility for benefits may be affected and benefits may be denied. Benefits under this program are considered "wages" for tax purposes. The Social Security Number on the application is for identification purposes and is used to report to the IRS the sale of the property to the Government and to report withholdings for Federal Income Tax, FICA and Medicare Purposes. Its non-disclosure may or not affect payment benefits.
