

SAVANNAH DISTRICT
U.S. ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS

LTC Timothy Nix Deputy District Commander

Lieutenant Colonel Timothy Nix assumed his duties as Deputy Commander of the Savannah District in June 2020. As Deputy Commander, Nix assists with overseeing the Savannah District's military and civil works programs valued at approximately $1 billion. The construction mission alone involves an extensive program at 11 Army and Air Force installations throughout Georgia and North Carolina. The civil works mission consists of wetland protection oversight for all of Georgia and management of three hydro-electric dams and reservoirs that provide more than half of the peaking hydropower supply in the Southeast region. He assists with the water resource mission for the entire Savannah River Basin, which is a freshwater resource for eastern Georgia and western South Carolina down to the Savannah Harbor. As Deputy Commander, Nix also shares responsibility for the district's work in military design and master planning. He helps oversee the district's mission for hazardous, toxic, and radioactive waste clean-up at formerly used defense sites and helps manage real estate activities for the Department of Defense.

Nix holds a Bachelor of Science in History from Georgia College & State University, a Masters of Science in Construction Management from the Georgia Institute of Technology and is a registered Project Management Professional. His military education includes the Engineer Officer Basic and Advanced Course, the Command & General Officers' Staff Course, Airborne School and both the FEST Reconnaissance and Contingency Construction Tracks.

From 2003 to 2006 Nix served in the 58th Combat Engineer Company, 11th ACR at Fort Irwin, California, deploying to Iraq as a platoon leader and serving as the A&O platoon leader and executive officer after redeployment. In 2008 he was assigned to command the 62nd Sapper Company, 4th Engineer Battalion at Fort Carson, Colorado. While in this assignment he deployed his unit to Iraq and redeployed his unit to Afghanistan in support of the Operation Enduring Freedom surge. Following company command he was assigned as the Engineer Captains assignment officer in the Human Resources Command (HRC) at Fort Knox, Kentucky. After completion of Command and General Staff College and Advanced Civil Schooling in 2013, Nix was assigned to the Nashville District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, serving as a project engineer and construction manager in Oak Ridge, Tennessee as part of the District's inter-agency partnership with the Department of Energy. In 2015 he deployed as the Operations Officer of the Joint Engineer Section, U.S. Forces-Afghanistan with the 3rd Infantry Division. Upon redeployment, he served as the Operations Officer in the Division Engineer staff at Fort Stewart, Georgia. He then assumed the duties of Operations Officer and Executive Officer in the 92nd Engineer Battalion, 20th Engineer Brigade. He joined the Savannah District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in 2018, serving as the 542nd Forward Engineer Support Team—Advance (FEST-A) Commander deploying the team twice in support of Operation Atlantic Resolve.

His awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, the Purple Heart, the Meritorious Service Medal (2OLC), the Joint Service Commendation Medal, the Army Commendation Medal (4OLC), the Army Achievement Medal (4OCL), the National Defense Service Medal, the Afghanistan Campaign Medal (2 campaign stars), the Iraqi Campaign Medal (2 campaign stars), the Global War on Terror Expeditionary and Service Medals, the Overseas Service Ribbon (with "2" device), the NATO Medal, the Combat Action Badge, the Aviation Crewmember Badge, and the Basic Parachutist Badge. He was also awarded the Joint Meritorious Unit Award, the Valorous Unit Award and the Meritorious Unit Award. The Engineer Regiment awarded Nix the Bronze de Fleury Medal.
